Recipe of the month

Apple Ladybug Treats

2 red apples 1 tablespoon peanut butter
1/4 cup raisins 8 thin pretzel sticks

Prep: 10 mins. Ready In: 10 mins Level: Easy

- 1 Slice apples in half from top to bottom and scoop out the cores using a knife or melon baller. If you have an apple corer, core them first, then slice. Place each apple half flat side down on a small plate.
- 2 Dab peanut butter on to the back of the "lady bug," then stick raisins onto the dabs for spots. Use this method to make eyes, too. Stick one end of each pretzel stick into a raisin, then press the other end into the apples to make antennae.

Everybody's Talking

Rare street artist Finding artists in public places who will draw caricatures of visitors is relatively common. However, discovering a sculptor who will mold a likeness into clay is harder to come across. In Changsha, in China's Hunan province, a sculptor named Yan Junhai does exactly that. Having learned to sculpt at a young age, he uses his hands and a sculpting knife to create realistic busts of people he sees. As it is so rare to find someone like him on the street, visitors to Changsha might want to try to find him so he can make a souvenir for them to take home to show friends.

No rolling over Paul Lavery and Jen Scott, his partner, didn't think their loveable dachshund, Harlso, would ever learn any doggie tricks. They'd tried for years, with no luck, to teach him to sit or roll over. Then one day Lavery, from Belfast, Northern Ireland, put a toy on Harlso's head. Lo and behold, the little critter carefully balanced it, keeping it there for quite some time. The couple gave their pet many more opportunities to balance things on his head, such as full glasses of water, donuts, and gingerbread men, and they posted photos on social media. Now, Harlso has an impressive following of admirers.

Fake mayor Pichuclaco, a town in Chiapas, Mexico, has become known for its cutout mayor. Mayor Moisés Aguilar Torres must be quite a busy man. Rather than attending an event at a health service organization, he sent a large cardboard cutout of himself instead. As Torres was once a nurse, it was disappointing to the health service staff because they wanted to meet him. Instead, they had to suffice with a photo of themselves standing with the cutout figure. Photos of the event have been circulated on social media. Some are critical about it, others find it humorous but, if anything, it's peculiar!

Crazy crows A man named Mohanan rescued two baby crows, but the mother didn't like him touching her hatchlings. Mohanan, a tractor driver in Ambalavayal, Wayanad, India, found the hatchlings under his vehicle and gently placed them on the side of the road. Now, a murder of crows, who must be part of the mother's group, cackle loudly and fly at Mohanan every time he comes by the area. They don't bother anyone else. The driver has tried disguising himself, but to no avail – somehow the crows can identify him. He has to carry a stick to ward them off, but he manages to laugh about this curious avian behaviour.
