Vol. 18 No. 27 July 5, 2021

Everybody's Talking

White cukes: Most vegetable gardeners are familiar with green cucumbers, but not many may be aware that there is such a thing as a white cucumber. This variety is known by many names, including White Wonder, White Albino, Ivory King, and Jack Frost. This cucumber was first developed by a seed company in the United States in the late 1800s. It took the company several years to test and evaluate the fruit before commercializing the seed. While their foliage is green, these cucumbers have white skin, and the fruit is crisp and delicious.

Treasure hunt: A jeweller and his wife from Macomb County, Michigan (U.S.), were having a hard time making ends meet during the COVID-19 shut down. So Johnny and Amy Perri decided to close their shop and bury (or otherwise hide) all their merchandise in dozens of places around the state. The couple is holding a series of treasure hunts; contestants must buy tickets to obtain clues, riddles, and maps leading to the locations. Treasure that could be found includes diamond rings, silver bars, necklaces, and prospector coins. The couple is calling their adventure Johnny's Treasure Quest.

Some like it hot: When the temperature is hot, people like to jump in a lake or find an air-conditioned place to escape from it. But some tourists visiting Death Valley National Park in the southwestern United States get out of their cars to snap selfies beside the Furnace Creek Visitor Center's digital thermometer. The numbers might read as high as 132° F (56° C). These tourists often post photos on social media about surviving such severe heat, even if their air-conditioned cars are only a few paces away! Death Valley is one of the hottest places on Earth and the driest in North America.

Face painting fanatic: Hannah Chilton, known as "Hannah Grace" on social media, is a makeup artist with great skill, and she uses that skill to turn herself into different things. Chilton, who lives in the UK, applies body paint and makeup to her face. When complete, she may look like a dinosaur, a skull, or a mummy, to name just a few. When she finishes a creation, she takes pictures of herself to post and then washes the paint off. She has quite a following and hopes to one day make her living using her craft, which she began just for fun in 2018 during time off from her job as a chef.
