Everybody's Talking

Model kitty: Who says a cat can't get a job and make money? There is one feline from Jiangbei, Chongqing, China, who is showing the world she is capable of such a feat. The cat is a cute British shorthair named Mao Mao, and she earns up to 10,000 yuan per sitting as a car model. Her "career" started when Mao Mao's owner, an automobile industry worker named Zheng, brought her to work during an auto show. He set Mao Mao on the hood of a car, and people began snapping pictures and posting them on social media. Needless to say, it was only a matter of time before the costumed kitty was in demand for a few jobs a month.

Flooded out: Nothing was going to keep Australian Kate Fotheringham away from her wedding venue, not even raging floodwaters. That is what she faced at her parents' home near Wingham, New South Wales, on the morning of the big day. When it became clear that she and her parents would not be able to drive to town so she could marry Wayne Bell, she resorted to social media to see if someone had a solution. Before long, a TV station arranged for a helicopter to come and fly her over the swollen river. After dealing with a few other problems, such as the caterer not being able to make it, the pair got married, and they have pictures to prove it.

3D retirement: A retired Dutch couple moved into a rented home in Eindhoven, a suburb of Bosrijk. This sounds like a standard thing to do, but this case is a special endeavour: they are the first people in Europe to live in a 3D-printed house. Elize Lutz and Harrie Dekkers will live in the two-bedroom bungalow, which looks a little like a big boulder with windows, for six months, at a reduced rent. The home was designed by participants in Project Milestone at the Eindhoven University of Technology. Lutz and Dekkers will keep track of their experiences living in the 3D home as a way of documenting the technology's viability.

Lost dog: Usually cats are the ones who are said to have nine lives, but Ivy the dog survived an ordeal. Owned by a family in Sioux City, Iowa (U.S.), Ivy wandered away from home and ended up on the road for 23 days. She was finally captured 100 miles (161 kilometres) away in the state of Nebraska, near the city of Omaha. Ivy had been seen numerous times on her voyage, during which worried onlookers tried to call her with kind words, but that only frightened the shy pooch. Eventually, the Nebraska Humane Society was called in to help, and used food to lure Ivy into a concerned citizen's garage. The dog had lost weight during her adventure, but otherwise was happy to be home.
