Everybody's Talking

Cat walk: Pet kitties are usually of the house cat variety, those furry felines that like to purr and cuddle on their owners' beds. But two folks from Penza, Russia, have a different kind of feline companion. Maria and Aleksandr Dmitriev heard the news that a newborn cougar named Messi, at the Penza zoo, was sick. The couple offered to buy the little (at the time) critter, and they took him home. He's grown to be a big cat now, and has had specialized training by a dog trainer. Messi knows a number of commands, such as "sit" and "stay," and his owners can take him for a walk using a leash. What a sight that would be!

Mango mania: A young woman from Dimbulah, Queensland, Australia, wanted to prove that food waste is not necessary. Jessica Collins lives on her family's mango farm. Her chores include getting the fruit packed and ready for market, but she hates the fact that many mangos are rejected by stores because they aren't perfect. So for a high school project, she dried 1,400 mango seeds, cut them in half, and sewed them together to make a ball gown. The whole process took over four months. While it's unlikely that mango-seed dresses will catch on as a new fashion, Collins believes her project shows that imperfect produce may have alternate uses.

Lucky model: Even if you think your luck is running out, you never know what may lie around the next corner. A homeless man in Nigeria was definitely not out of luck in his life, even though he slept under a bridge. Ali Olakunmi was approached by a creative director, Afolabi, who was getting ready for a fashion shoot at the same bridge. When the model whom Afolabi had hired did not show up on time, he asked the sleepy Olakunmi if he would mind trying on some of the clothes and posing. The young man did so, and the rest is history. Now, this newly minted, once-homeless model has his own social media account and a management company to help him.

Trail dog: If you don't have a dog, but would like to go on a hike with one, then a visit to the Equinox Golf Resort and Spa is in order. Located in Manchester Village, Vermont (U.S.), guests can book a "Golden Hike" with a golden retriever named Cooper, for free. This friendly pooch is owned by Jay Sheldon, the resort's general manager. Sheldon realized that Cooper makes people happy, so the dog is allowed to roam the grounds to visit guests. If they wish, guests can attend the weekly Golden Hike, with Cooper in the lead. Needless to say, this resort is pet-friendly, and guests are encouraged to bring their own pets along for their vacation.

Close up and personal: Many concert fans and theatregoers have seen a show that uses a thrust stage. This type of stage sticks out into the main audience area, with three sides surrounded by viewers.
