Everybody's Talking

Low down: Joy Chapman of British Columbia (Canada) can sing really, really low. So low, in fact, that she was named by Guinness World Records as the woman who can hit the lowest note for females. Chapman has been singing most of her life, and even when she was a little girl, she sang choir parts usually set aside for male voices. She's had different vocal teachers, and some have been quite astounded about the low notes she was able to hit. When she decided to try for the world record, she had to go through an arduous process to have her low notes recorded. It took quite a few tries over a long period to get the recording the way she wanted it to be.

Sky swim: Those who want to have an amazingly unique swimming experience will want to check out the upcoming Sky Pool at the Embassy Gardens, a condo development in the Nine Elms district of London, England. When complete, this 25-metre (82-foot) long pool will be positioned between two buildings, at a height of 35 metres (115 feet) above the ground. It will be transparent, so swimmers will feel like they are floating up in the sky. Passersby looking up at the pool from the sidewalk will be able to watch swimmers do their laps, seemingly among the clouds.

Rare plant: A greenhouse in Lovendegem, Belgium, recently had a unique plant for sale: a Monstera adansonii variegata, which sold for 1,799 Euros. The 15-centimetre (6-inch) tall plant fetched this amazing amount of money because it is a rare variant of the species. Usually available for a tiny fraction of this price, the plant that is also known as "monkey mask" usually has green leaves with holes. However, this variant's leaves are white and yellow. Garden centre worker Arne Schurmans explained that it is not possible to actually cultivate the variant because it is a mutation. Owners must be knowledgeable about plants because this one needs special care.

Roaming boars: The port city of Haifa in northern Israel is home not to just humans, but to roaming wild boars and their offspring. Just like raccoons in the cities of North America, the wild boars of Haifa get into people's garbage and amble down the streets, seemingly without a care in the world. They even play with pet dogs! The boars used to stay mostly in the ravines of this hilly city, but in recent years have ventured into the populated areas and have become part of the city's nature scape. They do not fear humans, and will take a nap wherever a sunbeam lands. While their presence concerns some citizens, others consider them to be part of daily life.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 23)

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Are you feeling lazy? The planetary energies this week may exacerbate this feeling. Be careful that it doesn't cause trouble for you at work or with your partner. Lucky numbers: 8, 9, 17, 29, 34, 35.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20)

Lucky numbers this week: This week's odds favour Pisces winners with the luckiest number being 42.

Did You Know...

- Rare sauce: People who live in the province of Manitoba (Canada) are very familiar with a delicious dipping sauce for chicken fingers that was invented by a local diner chef. Honey dill sauce is hard to find outside of this Canadian province.
- Salt rinse: If the toothpaste tube is empty, an alternative way to have clean teeth and fresh breath is by rinsing with saltwater, which works as a disinfectant. One teaspoon dissolved in a cup of water will suffice.
- Cute marsupial: Australia may be home to kangaroos and koalas, but another marsupial unique to the country is the quokka. These cute little animals live in Western Australia, as well as on Rottnest Island near Perth, and on Bald Island near Albany.
- Movie site: A Moroccan desert landform has been used in movies like Spectre, the 2015 James Bond flick. Called Gara Medouar, this erosional crater of limestone rises 50 metres above the sand, with a collapsed interior valley and a ravine that provides natural access to the interior.
- Love those spuds: The province of Prince Edward Island, off the east coast of Canada, is home to a huge potato industry. The island's potato farms provide the entire country with an estimated one-quarter to one-third of its potatoes.

On the Lighter Side

What goes bonk, bonk, bonk, bonk, bonk, bonk, bonk? A rubber-nosed clown falling down a flight of stairs.

Knock! Knock! Who's there? Poodle. Poodle who? Poodle a little mustard on my hot dog.

Patient: "I think I am a dog."
Doctor: "How long has this been going on?"
Patient: "Since I was a puppy."

What do you call a group of mice in disguise? A mousequerade party.

Did you read the book about how to put a boat together? It was riveting.
