Everybody's Talking

Noisy home: Living beside a busy highway isn't most people's idea of peace and quiet. A woman in Guangdong province, northwest of Hong Kong, doesn't seem to care about that. Known as Ms. Liang, the woman refused to take a payout from the government to sell her house so the Haizhuyong Bridge in the city of Guangzhou could be built. Many other homeowners and businesses took the compensation, and the construction proceeded. To accommodate the house, which is located in a pit, four lanes of traffic had to be split to go around it.

Canine cruising: If you plan to park your car and run in for something at a nearby vendor, the rule is to turn off the ignition. Unfortunately, the owner of a sports utility vehicle neglected to do that when he parked and ran into a bakery in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin (U.S.). When he emerged with his treats, he found his vehicle had smashed into the side of a nearby building. The culprit was Callie, the man's Australian shepherd, who had accidentally put the vehicle into gear when moving around inside. Luckily, no one was hurt, and not much damage was done. It's doubtful that Callie got any of her own treats for that trick!

Cartoon cat: Khanh Lam and Xuan Khanh, an engaged Vietnamese couple, are both kids at heart, and they proved it by planning their engagement party using a Doraemon theme. Doraemon is a Japanese manga series featuring a blue robotic animated cat with the same name. Both members of the couple have been fans since they were children. They collected as much memorabilia as possible to present at the party, and they used the cat's blue colour for tablecloths, bridesmaids' dresses, centrepieces, and chair covers. The couple intend to take their love of Doraemon one step further and have their wedding themed in the same way.

Dog sense: Sgt. Charles Brooks, an off-duty police officer, was on a hunting expedition near Manchester, New Jersey (U.S.), when he noticed a lone dog in the bush. Intrigued, he followed the dog's paw prints and came across an elderly man whose car had careened off the road. The man was Fred Rapp, and he had been in the car in the woods for nine hours. Petey, his dog, wandered away to find help and came across Sgt. Brooks. The officer soon was able to walk Rapp out of the bush, where a local first aid team met them. Rapp's daughter, who had reported her father missing, was immensely relieved that he had been found and was safe.

Did You Know...

Dancing background: British comedian and actor Sacha Baron Cohen of the movies Borat and Brüno, spent his childhood in London. As a teenager, he loved breakdancing. He later lived for a year at a kibbutz in Israel, and attended Cambridge University.

Bovine replacement: The Wizard of Oz, by American author L. Frank Baum, was made into a stage production in 1902. Toto the dog was not a part of this version. Instead, Dorothy, the lead character, had a cow named Imogene.

Grow it out: Human hair grows at approximately 1.2 centimetres (1/2 inch) per month, meaning that after a year without a cut, your hair would be almost 15 centimetres (6 in.) longer. Many things affect hair growth, including diet, genetics, and use of certain medications.

Bowling alternative: For those familiar with bowling, the 5- and 10-pin forms of the pastime usually come to mind. However, there are other forms of the game, including duckpin bowling, which uses 10 short, squat pins and a light ball.

Bear invasion: In 2019, about 50 polar bears invaded a community of 3,000 people who live on a chain of islands called Novaya Zemlya, a remote area in northern Russia. The bears came in search of food. A team of specialists removed the bears from the area without harming them.
