Everybody's Talking

Chapel on a cliff: A certain medieval ruin in Catalonia, Spain, might make tourists' heads spin. The Hermitage of La Pertusa is perched on top of a steep cliff above the village of Corçà. Visitors can reach this centuries-old chapel by a narrow road, but the last bit requires a hike on a trail. Those who reach the ruin would be well-advised not to look down, where they would see a sheer drop to the Canelles Reservoir. The view is called amazing. For their efforts to reach the site, fans of birdlife have been rewarded with sightings of eagles, peregrine falcons, and vultures.

Better butter: Butter is one of those ubiquitous foods that most people don't think about very often. They simply smear it on bread, melt it on popcorn, add it to favourite foods, and eat it. But Sublime Butter in St Margarets, a suburb of London, England, makes a special version called "Ridiculous No55 Lobster & Crab Butter" that is renowned for its unique flavour. The makers use British Isles lobster, Devon crab, caviar, lemon, and fennel. Judges at The Guild of Fine Food named it among the world's finest foods and claimed they could eat it right off the spoon. Sublime Butter founder Chris Mair is thrilled with the accolades.

Imagining the past: A photographer from Portland, Oregon (U.S.), is interested in documenting abandoned properties. Because he uses a drone, some of Brendon Burton's photos are aerial in composition. In a series called "Thin Places," shots include dilapidated farmhouses and barns in the middle of fields, a once-elegant manor on the edge of a swamp, and an old stone home at the foot of a mountain. The collection also includes deserted churches, commercial buildings, mobile homes, and even a tree house. Abandoned places appear in other series by the photographer, prompting viewers to wonder who once used or lived in the ruined buildings and why they left.

Coffee time: A pink flamingo that lives in a zoo in Granby, Quebec (Canada), decided to stretch its wings and go for a short flight. The bird must have been thinking of breakfast, or maybe just a cup of coffee, because it headed for a donut chain a short distance from the bird's stall at the Granby Zoo. Customers spotted the bird in the parking lot at the restaurant, and they called the zookeepers to inform them of its whereabouts. The pink-feathered friend didn't flinch when its keepers arrived to help it get back home. The keepers don't know why the bird wanted to escape, but it didn't insist on staying for coffee.

Did You Know...

Easy plant: An easy-care houseplant is a snake plant. The stiff, vertical leaves can be 6 inches (15 cm) to 8 feet (2.4 m) high. Snake plants don't need water often and are very forgiving about the amount of light they require.

Not just pink: While most people are familiar with watermelon that is pink inside (some with seeds and some without), other types look the same on the outside, but are yellow or orange on the inside.

Norwegian roots: Well-known children's writer Roald Dahl grew up in Llandaff, Cardiff, Wales. His parents were Norwegian, and thus he spent many summers in Oslo. One of his most famous books is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

Puzzle pieces: Jigsaw puzzles have been around since 1766. That's when an English cartographer named John Spilsbury glued a map onto wood, cut it into pieces, and asked his students to put it back together.

Lucky cat: A certain figurine of a cat, called maneki neko in Japanese, is considered a lucky charm. The cat's right paw may be raised to attract good fortune, or a left paw raised to welcome people. Both paws raised indicate it is protecting the premises.
