Everybody's Talking

Elderly runner: Most octogenarians have reached an age when they slow down a little. Not so for Barbara Humbert, an 80-something-year-old great-grandmother who ran 125 kilometres (78 mi.) in 24 hours. The elderly woman from Val d'Oise, France, competed in the French Championships in Brive-la-Gaillarde, and she broke the record for her age group. Humbert is not new to running. She started when she was in her 40s and has run many races over years, including 54 marathons. She usually runs 45 kilometres (28 mi.) per week. Although she has had a few minor injuries over the years, she managed to maintain her training, which gives her much more flexibility than many women of her age.

Lonely tree: A tree in Thailand has been dubbed the country's "loneliest tree." It grows on a tiny rocky islet called Koh Khai Hua Roh, which is just large enough to hold the tree and four or five people. Tourists can view it off the east coast of the country in Trat Province. A taban tree (Xylocarpus ramphii), this unique specimen can survive in the salt water that surrounds it on all sides. Social media has popularized the site, and many tourists visit to sit in the tree's branches and take photos. All of this traffic has caused damage, so the local administration is taking steps to curb visitors.

Name change: A promotion by a sushi restaurant chain in Taiwan convinced some people to legally change their names to include the word "Salmon." If people were willing to make the change, they were given great deals at the restaurant, such as free, all-you-can-eat sushi dinners for five diners. Many of the takers changed their names back to their original monikers, but government officials were not impressed. They said the promotion wasted employees' time and resources. Taiwan allows people to make up to three legal name changes, so the sushi-lovers will need to keep a count of their changes so they don't get stuck with a fishy name.

Contemporary art: "Stained Glass Geek" is the nickname that a Dutch artist has given himself. Arjan Boeve boasts an art degree and dabbled in many forms of artistic expression before landing on stained glass as his main medium. But there is a difference between his work and the traditional type of stained glass pieces that beautify churches and homes. His slant is as modern as it gets because he uses pop art as his muse. For example, video game and cartoon characters find their way into his work, and he has done a series on eggs breaking out of their shells. Boeve hopes his work will inspire other glass artists to create contemporary pieces.

Did You Know...

Mighty museum: Fossils, bones, footprints, and reproductions of many kinds of dinosaurs are on display at the Museo Del Jurásico (Jurassic Museum) of Asturias, Spain. The building is even shaped like a tridactyl footprint.

Tiny snake: The Barbados threadsnake (Tetracheilostoma carlae) is the world's smallest known snake and actually looks more like a worm. They are about as thick as a piece of spaghetti and live in tropical climates in the Caribbean.

Unwanted weed: Check your city's parks and green spaces for a plant called garlic mustard (Alliaria petiolata). Crushing its leaves releases a garlic smell. Young plants are edible, but it is considered an invasive species.

Wrong winner: The 2017 Academy Awards Best Picture was Moonlight. But announcers Faye Dunaway and Warren Beatty were handed the wrong envelope. They told the audience that La La Land had won. The embarrassing error was soon corrected.

Keeping the beat: A metronome is a device that makes a sound, often a click, to help musicians keep the beat. A musician can set it to a certain number of beats per second, depending on the speed of the music.

On the Lighter Side

Knock! Knock! Who's there? Freeze. Freeze who? Freeze a jolly good fellow...

A doctor broke his leg auditioning for a play. Luckily, he still made the cast.

Parent: "Why are you staring at that carton of orange juice?"
Kid: "Because it says concentrate."

What did the doorknob say to the door? It's your turn.

Optometrist's office: "If you don't see what you're looking for, you've come to the right place."
