Everybody's Talking

Good food: Different regions of the world have their own iconic street foods. In North America, vendors serve hot dogs out of trucks, and in England, hungry folks can usually find a fish-and-chips seller. On the Caribbean island country of Guadeloupe, the most famous street food is bokit. It is a sandwich famous for its bread: crispy, delicious, and fried. With this special bread forming the base, what's inside the sandwich is up to the imagination. Common items are saltfish and conch, but can also be chicken, lamb, chickpeas, or whatever else a sandwich maker prefers. Then cooks add accompanying toppings, such as lettuce, cheese, peppers, and various sauces. Sweet versions are eaten as dessert.

Famous cat: Tourist attractions might include castles, parks or amazing architecture, but in one Polish city, a cat named Gacek is a top-rated must-see. The chubby black-and-white feline lives in Szczecin in the northeastern part of the country. Gacek became famous when a post about him spread on social media. Then people started visiting the street where he lives, just to see and pet him. The pampered kitty resides in a wooden box with a roof, which is placed by the door of a shop. The shop's proprietors take care of him, although they do not claim to own him. He has become known as the "King of Kaszubska Street," for good reason!

Mistaken identity Sleeping on the day he was scheduled to be released didn't pay for an inmate at the Cowlitz County Jail in Longview, Washington (U.S.). That's because his cellmate, Brian Francisco Roman, heard a guard calling the inmate's name. As the inmate was sleeping, Roman sprang into action and pretended to be the soon-to-be-released prisoner. The two men have a similar appearance, so the guard allowed Roman to pick up his cellmate's keys, wallet, and clothes, and walk away from the facility. Prison staff realized the mistake when the cellmate woke up and asked when he could leave. A day later, authorities found Roman and brought him back to his cell.

Lost love: The things people will do for love! Or, to be more accurate, for lost love. One young man in China apparently felt desperate after his girlfriend broke up with him. In a bid to win back her love, he knelt on the sidewalk in front of her workplace in Dazhou City, Sichuan Province. Holding flowers, he stayed there through rain and chill, for an entire day. People walked by him at first, but eventually crowded around to learn his story. Many tried to tell him that if his girlfriend hadn't come out by then, she probably wasn't going to. After 21 hours, the poor fellow finally gave up. Hopefully, his heart will heal soon.

Did You Know...

Big bird: After the ostrich, the emu is the largest living bird, averaging over 1.75 metres (5.7 ft.) tall. Now found only in Australia, this flightless bird travels widely, looking for plants and insects to eat.

Swimming holes: Cenotes are large limestone sinkholes filled with ground or rainwater. Mexico's Yucatán Peninsula has several thousand, in open air and in caves. Some are peaceful and intriguing places to hang out.

Capital cities: The cities that are U.S. state capitals are sometimes unexpected. For example, the capital of New York is Albany, not New York City. And the capital of California is not Los Angeles, but Sacramento.

Taking flight: The sugar glider is a wee possum of Australia and southeast Asia. Named after its favoured food and its ability to glide between trees, the animal uses a membrane, called a patagium, that stretches between its wrists and ankles.

Wondrous road: Norway's 8.27 km (5.14 mi.) Atlanterhavsveien (Atlantic Road) connects Averøya Island to the mainland over a series of islets. Drivers encounter eight bridges, including the spectacular Storseisundet Bridge.

On the Lighter Side

A guy got a universal remote. He said, "This changes everything!"

Son: "Dad can you lend me some money?"
Dad: "Yes, but remember a fool and his money are soon parted."
Son: "Yes, I just figured that out."

Knock! Knock! Who's there? Pasta. Pasta who? Past the salt and pepper, please.

Where does a power cord go shopping? The outlet mall.

Basketball players are so well-rested because taller people sleep longer.
