Everybody's Talking

Monkey trouble: For generations, tourists have delighted in interacting with the monkeys that inhabit the grounds of the temple in the city of Lopburi, Thailand. But now, frustrated authorities in the city have decided to relocate these mischievous monkeys to elsewhere. Approximately 2,500 of the macaque monkeys will be transferred to large enclosures away from humans. This decision follows an incident in which monkeys knocked a motorcyclist off his bike and kicked a woman in the back because they were after her food. Authorities say they don't want any humans, or monkeys for that matter, to be hurt, which is why they have decided to move the playful primates away from the temple.

Lots of marshmallows: If you're a kid who loves marshmallows, southeastern Michigan (U.S.), is the place to be. Every spring, several towns do a "Great Marshmallow Drop." Kids gather in a park and soon a helicopter appears, whirling overhead. What follows is an amazing sight: thousands of marshmallows dropping from the helicopter, followed by a frenzied scramble by the kids to collect them. However, these marshmallows aren't for eating; instead, kids trade them in for a prize bag that includes a colouring book, a one-day water park pass, and candy. According to officials, the marshmallow drops are simply a way to celebrate spring.

Historical gaming: In a twist of classroom creativity, a middle school teacher is gaining online fame for his innovative teaching method, which is incorporating video games into lessons. When the class topic shifted to Greece, the teacher, known as Mr. Mahathey, introduced his students to the "Assassin's Creed Odyssey" game. He used the game to illustrate the Battle of Thermopylae, and an online video of his lesson went viral. By using the game's map, Mr. Mahathey vividly explained the strategic positioning of the Greeks against the Persians. Comments flooded in, applauding the teacher for his innovative approach and recognizing the game's historical accuracy.

Celestial goodbye: Elizabeth Garcia had loved to travel and, after her passing, her family arranged one final trip. Her sister Jean fulfilled her wish for a unique farewell: sending the ashes of Elizabeth and her beloved cat into space. Elizabeth had long dreamed of space travel but never got the chance. With the help of Aura Flights, a company that specializes in space memorials, their ashes were launched into the cosmos. Riding a stratospheric balloon, the vehicle reached over 100,000 feet (30,480 m) above Earth's surface. Since this unique event took place in January 2023, interest in space memorials has increased, reflecting a growing desire for celestial farewells.

LEO
 (July 23 - Aug. 22)

You may find that your mind and emotions are out of sync at week's end. Can you find a balance of the two? Otherwise, take a deep breath and wait a few days. Lucky numbers: 15, 16, 23, 26, 29, 35.

VIRGO
 (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)

SAGITTARIUS
 (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

CAPRICORN
 (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)

AQUARIUS
 (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

You may receive many ideas at week's end about creating positive change for yourself or others. Taking some time to sort through them before acting may be helpful. Lucky numbers: 12, 13, 17, 21, 28, 31.

PISCES
 (Feb. 19 - March 20)

Your natural intuitive and creative talents may be heightened this week. Try to channel this into spiritual or artistic endeavors, rather than pushing through on mundane tasks. Lucky numbers: 9, 11, 17, 42, 43, 44.

Lucky numbers this week: This week's odds favour Taurus winners with the luckiest number being 7.

Did You Know...

Sleeping giant: Albert Einstein is one of the world's most famous scientists. Perhaps one secret to his brain power is that he usually slept 10 hours a night. That's nearly one and a half times as much as the average person.

Noted brother: Most people recognize actor Tom Hanks, famous for Forrest Gump, among other great movies. Hanks' older brother is a noted biology professor at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Unique proposal: Famous inventor Thomas Edison claims to have taught his future wife, Mina Miller, Morse code so they could talk to each other in secret. She said he even proposed to her using Morse code.

More than words: Studies indicate that body language constitutes 93% of a person's first impression of someone. The language of facial expressions, handshakes, eye contact, gestures, and personal space can say more than words.

Red lipstick: This concept wouldn't fly today, but during World War II, women were encouraged to wear red lipstick to boost morale, especially of soldiers. With the slogan "Beauty is their Duty," red lipstick was a patriotic symbol.

On the Lighter Side

Where does Thursday come before Wednesday? In the dictionary.

I call my car flattery. It gets me nowhere.

Rita: "You're always wishing for something you don't have."
 Nita: "Well, what else is there to wish for?"

If you buy a bigger bed, you actually get less bedroom.
